SUBJECT: YOU RECEIVED A COMPLAINT FOR HARRASSMENT – WHAT’S NEXT?
TWO (2) HOURS CONSULTATION – NO COST TO THE DISTRICT

Most Fire Districts face high risk situations on a daily basis that you train for all year long. As a pool we are seeing larger costs for employment practices liability (EPL) claims. These types of claims are associated with how personnel actions and decisions are carried out by management at the District and Board level. Over the last ten fiscal years, FAIRA has seen 142 claims totaling $5.0 million dollars in loss. As a point of reference, FAIRA’s EPL claim rate per $1 million of payroll is $0.8.

Today’s EPL claims can include:

- Wrongful termination based on employee race or the Americans with Disabilities Act; Race; Gender, Religion; LGBTQ Orientation;
- #MeToo; Sexual Harassment;
- Failure to hire or promote;
- Whistle blower claims where the claimants felt retaliated against for reporting violations of Cal/OSHA and other labor laws and
- Wage and hour disputes as well as improper compensation based on non-exempt employee status.

If the rate of EPL claims were reduced by half, a savings of over $2.5 million would be generated. This reduction in losses translates to a lower loss ratio, which ultimately produces a lower premium.

There are a variety of methods to eliminate and defend against such claims, one of which is ensuring that proper legal procedures are followed when taking action against employees. In spirit of this partnership, FAIRA has contracted with Peter Flanderka, an employment litigation attorney who will provide consultation for two hours at no cost to your District. This provides your District the opportunity to discuss disciplinary actions like termination, suspension or demotion with prudent defensible methods concerning employment actions.

As a FAIRA member, we are requesting your cooperation in managing FAIRA’s risks when faced with potential EPL situations. Mr. Flanderka’s contact information and qualifications have been provided on his biography attached.

Best regards,
